MURDER

Silver Grove Adds Another Victim To Already Long List.

Friday night Switchman Archibald Hornley, of Covington, while switching at the Silver Grove "hump," was held up by an unknown man and robbed. In the scuffle, Hornley was knocked in the head and pushed off the train, which passed over him.

He was taken to Speer's Hospital, at Dayton, where he died in about half an hour.

Hornley was about 25 years old, and is survived by his wife, who lives in Covington.

Policemen all over the line are looking for his murderer. Chief Mackey was at work the greater part of the night with six special policemen, searching all the eastbound trains.

Hornley was well known here and had many friends who were shocked to learn of his untimely end.

HERE'S ANOTHER WALKIST ON LONG HIKE.

Albert E. Lippard, of Washington, D. C., who is walking from Washington to San Francisco, Cal., for a $1,500 bet, to be finished by August 1, will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nepper, of Aberdeen, O., over Sunday.

Lippard passed through Mayville last August on his trip to Chicago, Boston and back to Washington. He averages thirty-five to forty miles a day. He has to earn his way through by cooperating with J. M. Pitkin & Company, of Newark, N. Y., manufacturers of the largest tube flavors in the world, he is making his way. He has covered 45,000 miles in seven years and is a reporter by profession. He is timed and watched by George B. Kiter, of Washington, D. C., who says it is a hard matter to keep up with Mr. Lippard, who often leaves him five to ten miles in the rear.

MRS. GEORGE RICE.

Friday evening about 6:30, Mrs. George Rice, aged 61, of West Second street, was called to the Great Beyond. Her death was due to a complication of diseases. She is survived by John Hugh and Oliver Hugh, of Cincinnati, and Charles Rice, of Lexington; Mrs. Mary Kelly, of Cincinnati; Elizabeth Rice and Mrs. Samuel Peterson, of this city.

Funeral at the Catholic church at 9 o'clock Monday morning. Burial in the Washington cemetery.

HIGH SCHOOL RECEPTION DAY

Yesterday afternoon M. H. S. gave a reception to the public of Mayville and Mason county.

There were on display exhibits of the work of the various departments and the exhibits were explained and lectured on by the following:

English—Miss Hilma Threlkeld.
Languages—Miss Margaret Haberman.
History—Miss Nellie Sutherland.
Science—Mr. Leonard Brooking.
Mathematics—Mr. Eugene McCarthy.
Domestic Science—Miss Edith Dickson.

All the High School display work was in the auditorium, which was decorated especially for the occasion.

The Domestic Science department had their display in the Domestic Science luncheon, in the south basement.

where beautiful girls dispensed tea and wafers. This exhibit was of especial interest, as it is a new department in our school and also from this source the future housewife of the vicinity receives their initial knowledge in the art of cookery. When the School Board installed this department it did a great deal for the community at large.

NOTES.

Over three hundred people registered at the door. Some crowd.

Miss Dickson's Domestic Science girls can sure cook.

The Victor Tea & Spice Company furnished the tea for the lunch of the Domestic Science department.

The National Biscuit Company donated the wafers for the refreshments served by the Domestic Science girls.

The auditorium was decorated until it resembled a bower of beauty.

Prof. Caplinger was all over the building, greeting and shaking hands with every one.

A day like yesterday is a red letter day in the history of the public schools. Let them come often.

The Ledger man was tempted to annex one of those chocolate cakes in the Domestic Science department.

The work of the teachers was untiring to make it the big success it was, and they deserve all the praise one can give them.

LIMESTONE LUMBER CO.

The saw and planing mill plant of W. B. Mathews & Company, one of the oldest in the Ohio Valley, is to be succeeded by the Limestone Lumber Company, which new firm has taken over the entire plant, property, lumber, logs, landing, etc., etc., corner Second and Commerce streets, belonging to the old company, and will continue and greatly increase the business.

Following are the new officers of the new concern:

President—McAttee Case.
Vice President—S. D. McDowell.
Secretary and Treasurer—Charles C. Dobyns.

The new company expects to be in full operation by May 1, when a score of men will be put to work, with more to follow as the business increases.

The Mathews saw milling plant has, up to the past few years, been one of Mayville's principal industries, and has, during the management of Mr. W. B. Mathews and Mr. Charles C. Dobyns, paid out hundreds of thousands of dollars for material and to employees, and strictly owing to the health of Mr. Mathews the change is made.

The Limestone Lumber Company will begin at once to lay in stock and the big wheels will soon be running and the welcome whistle sounding its joyous call to work.

NARROW ESCAPE

Yesterday while at play during the noon recess at the Forest Avenue school, little Archibald Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ola Holland, of Beach street, Sixth Ward, was run down by Dr. Taylor's auto, which was being driven by William Tolle, who made desperate efforts to steer around the child, but failed, knocking Archibald down and passing over his body.

He was taken to his home in the car and when last heard from was resting easily and will soon be able to be back to school, having suffered only slight cuts about the head and body.

Largo Gathering of Valiant Knights From Surrounding Towns.

Friday night was another banner event in the history of Limestone Lodge No. 36, Knights of Pythias, when Knights from Flemingsburg, Mayslick, Blue Lick Springs, Aberdeen, O., and other surrounding towns, in response to an invitation, gathered together to witness the conferring of the rank of Knight upon Esquire C. E. Cooper, of Flemingsburg, and Esquire J. W. Milton. The work of the degree team was never better, and elicited much favorable comment from those present.

After the degree had been conferred the lodge was closed, and a social session held, at which Sir Knights Sherman Ara, Grand Chancellor of Kentucky; Hon. J. D. Humphrey, of Flemingsburg; C. E. Dietrich, Hon. A. D. Cole, Hon. C. D. Newell and others delivered short talks.

At the conclusion of the speeches, a light buffet lunch was served, which was highly enjoyed.

Special Detective Omar Fizer, of the C. & O.'s Chicago force, is here visiting his father, Policeman Dudley Fizer and meeting his many friends. As a lynx-eyed sleuth who has all the new ropes in hand to catch criminals, Omar don't have to leave the main line for any of them.

Concerning Soil Tillage

After the ground is plowed, it should be disced and harrowed until all lumps are finely pulverized. This is because the delicate plant roots cannot penetrate hard lumps and are, therefore, deprived of much plant food. Tillage increases the availability of plant food elements by changing the arrangements of soil particles and bringing together those that have not before been in contact. It also changes the relation of the soil with air, water, salts and acids in the soil, making available plant food that would otherwise remain dormant.

THE POSSUM HUNTERS.

The alleged threats and claims of possum hunters, as recited by a witness in the trial at Morgantown have all the earmarks of empty and extravagant terrorizing. The statement said to have been made by a leader of the band that they were 500 strong in his section and that "80 per cent of the people were possum hunters" is ridiculous on the face of it. This is an old trick of lawless bands and should cause no undue concern. But when it is taken in conjunction with all other boasts that "they were not afraid of the courts" because of their number and strength, the necessity arises for swift and decisive action on the part of the law. This is an evident effort at intimidation, and from the suspicion of anything like intimidation the authorities and the law-abiding citizenry should keep themselves entirely free. The power of such bands as these lies not in their actual strength, but in the fear that they strike to the heart of the community by just such empty boasts and foolish threats as these. It is the business of the authorities to disperse the vacuity of these things and deal with the offenders themselves in such a manner to reassure the community and discourage any attempt at future terrorizing.—Courier-Journal.

THE WAY TO GOOD BUSINESS.

When the President asks business men what to do to unite American business he will learn that there is only one way—just unite it. Take off the laws which forbid men to pool their business. Throw away the theories of the small losing because the large do more business. Destroy forever the un-American idea that an elephant is dishonest because it is large, and a mouse is abused because it is small. Get laws fitted to human beings, not for assumed pygmy saints and bandit heretics.

And incidentally fix the tariff to inform the world that we know we have more business at home than all others can give us, and are protecting it by sane laws. That is Americanism. Ask business men, and they will answer right. Look the professors up in their classrooms, and there will be business enough, and the small will get more for the money invested than the large, but they will not pay so many wages. Abolish trusts by forgetting them.—Worcester Telegram.

THE WORLD DO MOVE.

(From a Speech by Elihu Root.)

I had a count made not long ago in the Library of Congress of the number of laws that had been passed in five years, ended December 1, 1913.

I found that more than 62,000 laws had been passed by Congress and the state legislatures in this country in that five years, and I found that there had been reported during that five years and published in 630 volumes of reports of the Courts over 65,000 decisions of Courts of last resort in this country. Now, even Mr. Choate does not know them all by heart. How can you possibly know them? How can you conduct your business and keep out of jail?

THANK, MR. HOLLAND.

Those on the water wagon in the city of Maysville thank Mr. Frank Holland that he did not snide in the reservoir, as was reported and indicated a few days ago. Please keep out of our drinking water, gents. If you want to snide seek some quiet hog pond or butt your head up in a "grump stamp."

The San Francisco Chronicle says if the tariff would take care of the unemployed manufacturer, there would be no general unemployed problem.

THE WOMEN HOLD BALANCE OF POWER IN CHICAGO.

Official figures in the Chicago election gave Thompson a plurality of 150,000, an unprecedented figure. His Democratic opponent, Robert M. Sweitzer, received a total vote of 251,309. Five months ago Sweitzer was elected county clerk by a plurality of 75,000.

The grand total of votes was 669,658, the largest number ever cast by any city in the United States. Of this number 250,000 were cast by women, who exercised for the first time their right to vote for mayor in Chicago.

The women voters were overwhelmingly on the Republican side.

BOOST BUSINESS, DON'T BUST IT.

If the people of this country want commercial and industrial activity they will need the advice of our able and successful business men. In the prosperous nations of the world, the government is just as truly behind the big men of business as it is behind the soldiers and the sailors of its armies and its fleets. In this country we must return to the policy of having the government boost business instead of bust business.

NEWSPAPERS AND THE WAR.

It is a significant fact that despite the war in which Great Britain is playing a conspicuous part four periodicals—two Sunday newspapers, a popular weekly and an afternoon daily have been launched in London during the last fortnight. The new journals emanate from great publishing houses that are thoroughly in touch with business conditions and yet believe that the time is auspicious for their appearance.

THE FIGHT GOES ON.

The new Congress which meets next December will again face the woman suffrage question. A great pageant dramatizing the life work of Susan B. Anthony is to be staged early in December. It is planned to invite the 500 Senators and Representatives to attend this pageant. It is announced that in every detail this spectacle is to out do anything that has been planned to influence national legislation.

JAPAN'S GRIP ON CHINA.

China and Japan are said to have reached an agreement. Japan having done all the reaching and China the agreeing.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

BUT IT'S NO EASY MATTER.

Life's best joys are found in living on last month's salary instead of the one for the month just ahead.—Washington Post.

The Democratic platform denounced the increase in the number of government employees, and President Wilson made that a feature of his campaign addresses. But under Democratic rule, some 5,000 new places have been created, nearly all excluded from the Civil Service regulations, and about $10,000,000 is required to pay the cost of the new offices.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat remarks that Secretary Garrison is the only member of the cabinet who seems to consider facts more important than his own suppositions.

Felt Only "Tol'able."

An old negro, sent to a hospital, upon his arrival was placed in a ward, and one of the nurses put a thermometer in his mouth to take his temperature. When the house doctor made his round, he said:

"I feels right tol'able, suh."

"Have you had anything to eat yet?"

"Yesuh, I had a little."

"What did you have?"

"A lady done gimme a piece of glass to suck, suh."

WASHINGTON LETTER

Newspaper From the National Capital of Interest To All.

Washington, April 17.—"Recognition of the west" is the battle cry of the many western delegates who have arrived in town for the annual national congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which will begin its sessions Monday. The congress meets annually, but the president of the society is elected only every other year. This is election year and the delegates have arrived early in anticipation of a spirited campaign.

Secretary Garrison, it is understood, will direct that the War Department estimates for the next fiscal year shall include an item of $1,000 to maintain at the mounted service school at Fort Riley, Kas., a pack of hounds "for use in connection with approved program of instruction."

This has been jubilee week at the Catholic University of America, and the entire administration and student body of the famous institution in land have been busy with the entertainment of the greatest congress of the Catholic church hierarchy that has ever assembled in this country. At the silver jubilee ceremonies Thursday, in commemoration of the university's founding but its first twenty-five years of existence and progress, there were present for the first time at any public ceremony the three American cardinals—Gilbons, of Baltimore; O'Connell, of Boston, and Parley, of New York, together with thirty bishops, more than thirty monsignors and several hundred priests. One of the most honored guests of the occasion was Archbishop John J. Keane, the first rector of the university, who recently resigned the see of Dubuque.

Business men in this country are planning vigorous measures to bring about a change in the present manner in which American trade marks may be disregarded in South American countries. Under existing conditions, an American merchant may obtain a trade mark on a certain brand of goods in this country, but when he goes to one of the South American republics, he may find that some local merchant has registered an identical trade mark, and the American merchant can not send his goods into that country. In view of the present movement to increase trade between the United States and South American countries it is deemed of vital importance that something be done as soon as possible to remedy the matter.

Many persons passing the Capitol recently have paused to watch the men at work removing the broad steps leading to the main entrance of the building. These steps were laid about seventy-five years ago and for three-quarters of a century they have been trodden by statesmen of fame, many of whom have passed away long since. The steps were of sandstone and they had become splintered by the weather and worn by countless thousands of feet. Congress has appropriated $11,000 to replace the old steps with slabs of more enduring marble or granite.

Three beautiful wine glasses owned and used by President John Quincy Adams during his occupancy of the White House have just been added to the valuable collection of china and glass at the executive mansion. These glasses were given by Mr. Hall and Miss Elizabeth Adams, nephew and niece, respectively, of President Adams, to Mrs. Archibald Campbell of this city. Later they came into the possession of Mrs. Bowman H. McCalla, widow of Rear Admiral McCalla, who has presented them to Col. W. W. Harris, in charge of public buildings and grounds, for addition to the White House collection.

That the Spanish language ranks next to English in importance was the belief expressed by Secretary of State Bryan in an address before the South American Club of the Y. W. C. A., the other evening. "A century from now Spanish will be spoken by more people than will any other language, save English," said the Secretary. "The breach between North and South America soon would be spanned if the people of the United States would become acquainted with simple Spanish words used in everyday conversation."

Washington first spring clean-up and paint-up campaign is scheduled to begin Monday and continue until May 1. Every possible agency has been called upon to co-operate in this campaign, which is to be the most comprehensive and all-embracing the national capital has ever undertaken. Heretofore the annual spring clean-up has been a "clean-up" only, and the work has been done under the unaided supervision of the Clean City committee. This spring, however, the campaign is to be waged under the joint supervision of the Clean City committee and the executive committee of the Master House Painters and Decorators' Association of Washington. The latter organization has raised more than $1,200 with which to finance the campaign.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework."

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

WEAK KIDNEYS

MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Many Aches and Ills of Maysville People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so may weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and generally when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills frequently come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards dropsy, gravel or fatal Bright's disease. When the kidneys fail there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Maysville testimony is proof of their effectiveness.

Mrs. Annie McClellan, 541 W. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "I was often dizzy and nervous and my head ached. I had pain in my back and my kidneys were weak. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the complaint immediately and made me well and strong."

Mrs. McClellan is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the name that Mrs. McClellan had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. SAN FRANCISCO MAKES MERRY.

San Francisco, Cal., April 17.—Rejoicing over her complete rehabilitation after almost complete destruction by earthquake and fire nine years ago, San Francisco is making merry today with exposition guests from all over the world. The celebration opened this morning with a great military and civic pageant, which proceeded from the City Hall to the exposition grounds where it was reviewed by officers of the army and navy and the city and exposition officials. The fire-fighters were given the place of honor in the procession. Representatives of the fire department of numerous California cities were in line. At the exposition this afternoon thousands of spectators witnessed an exhibition of fire-fighting and life-saving methods. By proclamation of Mayor Rolph, the people of San Francisco will observe a day of thanksgiving tomorrow, which will be the actual anniversary of the great disaster of 1906. The leading feature of the day will be a great interdenominational service in the Court of the Universe at the exposition.

WELCOME LETTER FROM MRS. IDA M'DONALD.

Home, Ill., April 13, 1915.
Editor Ledger:
Edna, my daughter, and I are happily and richly domiciled here in this beautiful little village, with dear relatives and true friends, in the lovely sunshine, with the sweet breeze wafted to us from the early and beautiful spring flowers. There are many birds here, and they sing very sweetly; and then to watch the sunset is a most beautiful sight to us. I don't think we'll return to Kentucky in a few weeks, as stated by your Springdale correspondent, but we will be back in a few months, and as we can not do without your newsy little paper, I am asking you to mail it to me, that we may hear from our friends, who sometimes may forget to write to us. We find temperance workers here as well as there. My sister, Mrs. Jinks, will entertain the W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon, of which she is vice president.
MRS. IDA M'DONALD.

GOVERNOR MAGOFFIN CEN. TENARY.

Harrodsburg, Ky., April 17.—Citizens of Harrodsburg have arranged to decorate the grave of Beriah Magoffin tomorrow, on the one hundredth anniversary of his birth. Magoffin was the Governor of Kentucky in the first years of the Civil war and played a conspicuous, though unwilling role during the early stages of the great conflict. His heroic efforts to keep Kentucky neutral brought him into conflict with both the north and the south. In August, 1862, the Governor, finding the situation intolerable, called the Legislature in a special session and resigned. Governor Magoffin was a native and life-long resident of Harrodsburg.

JESUIT TO PRODUCE MOVIES.

San Francisco, Cal., April 17.—What is believed to be the first large moving picture show given under the auspices of the Catholic church is about to be launched in this city. With the approval of Bishop Hanna, Rev. D. J. Kavanagh, S. J., one of the Jesuit priests attached to St. Ignace College, has rented the big Civic Center auditorium at the Panama Exposition on Monday and Tuesday next. He will give there a mammoth film production entitled "A Pilgrimage to Rome and Audience with Pope Pius." Twelve thousand seats have already been sold for the initial performance.

TOBACCO IS GROWN OVER THE WHOLE WORLD

Enormous Production For Human Consumption—A Solace to the Human Race—Government Statistician Makes a Plea For the Tobacco User

Dr. Charles Pense, who hopes to stop tobacco smoking, chewing, selling and planting some day, is going to have some work ahead of him, as a government bulletin puts the tobacco crop of the world at more than 3,000,000,000 pounds a year, with an annual product of 30,000,000,000 cigars and more than 100,000,000,000 cigarettes for the world's consumption.

The compiler of these statistics has a good word to say for tobacco, not at all agreeing with Dr. Pense, who says it is the worst of poisons and is destroying the human race.

"A plant that could fasten such a habit on mankind," says the man of figures, "whether civilized or uncivilized, within the short space of four hundred years, and become known as well as cultivated in every portion of the world, must meet an essential, but mysterious, want of the human body and mind."

Governments Aid the Farmers in the Profitable Growth.

The cultivation of tobacco has received as careful attention as that of any agricultural industry, and the agricultural departments of all governments have given elaborate study to the question as to a scientific and practical problem vitally concerning all farmers and producers of the staple crops. Each year the plant must be reared from the beginning, thus resembling wheat and potatoes, and differing, therefore, from the tree or the vine.

Cultivation in every detail has become a technical business, every step being carefully controlled. After seeding and transplanting, tobacco must be fertilized; there is no plant so susceptible to fertilization. The demand of the plant for its natural nourishment must be exactly met, or it will be poor. It is a most exacting mistress.

More than half of the states of the United States are engaged in the production of the leaf, and throughout the Union new areas are brought into bearing, because analysis has shown that soil, seed and food can be so combined as to produce a commercially profitable article. Agricultural experiment stations the world over are showing how to go to work to get good crops, and the old fear, ending in real disaster in Virginia, many years ago, that the ground would become exhausted and barren, is no longer impending over the modern tobacco farmer who studies his occupation.

Perique tobacco produced in a small area of Louisiana, settled originally by the Acadians, is an exception in that it will not grow elsewhere. It demands the black soil of these bottoms for its peculiar flavor. Scarcely more than 70,000 pounds of Perique measure the world's crop.

Grown From the Equator To Snow-Covered Canada and Sweden—Belongs To Vegetable Family.

It seems from what he reports that there is now practically no country where it is not to some extent grown. Indigent as it is to a tropical climate, the tobacco plant has, by the ingenuity of man, been compelled to adapt itself to all ranges of temperature, so that it is found at such wide extremes as the region of the equator and the snow-covered lands of Canada and Sweden. In this respect it resembles the vine, which will thrive so long as it has sunshine for a few months in summer and sufficient moisture. It is interesting to learn from him that the much-loved and much-condemned weed belongs to the same plant family as the Irish potato, the egg plant, red pepper, tomato and jimson weed. Tobacco is grown from the seeds, and its cultivation does not differ materially from that of cabbage.

Tobacco Made Profitable In Supporting All Governments.

Every republic represented in the International Union of American Republics is a grower of tobacco. Every country has a large commerce in the leaf and the manufactured article; every government draws an important part of its revenue from the tobacco trade going on within or across its borders. Tobacco is used by a great number of people, and among more nations than any other cultivated product of the earth, and it is, with the exception of tea, the most highly taxed substance in the world. The United States derives $80,000,000 a year from the internal revenue and customs receipts on this article. Machine labor is displacing hand labor, and, therefore, the varying shapes of cigars or cigarettes, once characteristic of each country, are gradually yielding to a more uniform product.

Origin and Uses of Various Tobacco Products.

These further observations are taken from the government bulletin: "A crude pipe from which smoke was drawn up into the nostrils was the implement first seen by the Spaniards. On the mainland, in what is now the United States a pipe on present day lines was used, and had great symbolic significance at councils of peace or war. Within the tropics—in Mexico and Central America—the dried leaf was rolled upon itself to form the prototype of the modern cigar, and in other places corn husks were the containers, somewhat larger than the shuck cigarettes smoked so commonly by Mexicans, Central Americans and Brazilians. The pipe was the vehicle adopted by the English, and all the old prints illustrating smoking in the early days show only the pipes in the mouths or hands of the devotees of tobacco.

"Chewing is undoubtedly a habit inherited from the time when the medicinal effect was considered of immense value in the use of tobacco, for its stimulant qualities were held by the Indians to follow a small dose, or to be a desired result of the immediate position produced by a larger quantity. As Europeans found that effects were thus obtained, tobacco in some preparation for use by those who could not get a pipe or cigar whenever it was desired.

"Snuff-taking was discovered among the Brazilian Indians, and they were its best fabricators. Their taste in this matter was as pure as that of the fashionable world of the east, and the snuff they made has never been surpassed nor their apparatus for making it.

"This habit was introduced into Europe by the Portuguese and popularized in France and the north by Catherine de Medici. Ladies took snuff, and probably ladies occasionally smoked, but practically no mention is made of women smoking, and as a general habit women seem to have resorted to it very sparingly.

"The ungainly manner among many that the women of Latin America quite as commonly as the men are using the cigar or cigarette between them is unfounded and unwarranted. Women of the peon class are met with pipe or cigarette as a companion; in the public places of the East, too, as in similar resorts of the Anglo-Saxon, it may be the fashion for ladies to join in the trick of smoking, but the more enlightened one becomes with the intimate social life of South America the more one is astonished that credence could ever have been given to the fiction that women there habitually indulged in tobacco.

Tobacco A Ganga of Civilization.

"The physiologic effects of tobacco have been discussed ever since it was first used by civilized man. The Indians knew the symptoms it caused but were satisfied to ascribe them to the mysterious power influencing all life about them and questioned no further. But the attacks upon the habitual consumption of the prepared leaf have had a result of no small importance, and there is no gauge of civilization so generally applicable throughout the world as that of the consumption of tobacco. A substantial agreement has today been reached among the scientists that tobacco—this does not mean the alkaloid nicotine—is not the poison it was once supposed to be.

"In fact, tobacco leaf can be grown and cured with an almost impervious proportion of nicotine, and this meets the requirements of the consumers' tastes even better than that of tobacco strong in nicotine. It is, therefore, the aroma in the smoke, and the essential oils in the leaf which perpetuate the habit and stimulate the intellectual desire to enjoy the narcotic effects resulting from the properly prepared article.

Tobacco Has Its Merits If Used With Common Sense.

"Raw tobaccos are strong, but they are not liked; on the other hand, delicately cured tobaccos bring the highest price and enjoy the longest reputation. This indicates that the effect sought is altogether on the mind and imagination, and not at all upon the body. The use of tobacco is therefore, differentiated at once from the habitual use of any other drug. It does irritate the heart and upset the digestive organs if taken too often or without judgment, but this effect is altogether functional and disappears as soon as the habit is discontinued. That form of blindness called tobacco amblyopia comes from the almost constant use of the cigar or from the roughest kinds of tobacco smoked in a pipe. The consequences here may be permanent and disastrous, but immediate attention to the early symptoms will restore the eyesight unimpaired.

Facts In Its Favor Compared With Other Narcotics.

"Tobacco seems not to weaken the moral fiber of the one who uses it, and there is need only of a firm effort of will to relinquish the habit, if the individual so desires; in these respects it is essentially superior to all other drugs. Another argument in its favor is that the narcotic or stimulant effect of tobacco seems to be satisfied within itself; other drugs arouse a craving for a still more violent excitant, but the probability is that if mankind were deprived of tobacco his physique would suffer by indulgence in other drugs infinitely more powerful and pernicious."

Beautiful Home For Sale

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dawson have placed with us for sale their new home on East Second street, in the Sixth Ward. This home is located on a large lot, 72x150 feet, and running back to Williams street. We will not make any attempt to describe this home in detail. It is built of pressed brick, with hardwood floors, basement under the entire house, slate roofing, hot water, furnace, gas all over the house, and in fact, is modern and complete throughout, and must be seen to be fully appreciated. This beautiful home has been admired by all who have seen it, and every Maysvillian is justly proud of such enterprising citizens, as the builders of this property. Mr. Dawson's health is such that his physician has advised him to spend his winters in the South, and for that reason he offers his home for sale at less than cost, $6,500.

Recitation—"John Walker, Class—"Come, Fairies."

The exercises last about one half hour and pleased all who heard them. This room is the home of the Metcalf Art League, founded by the late Miss Ella Metcalf, one of Maysville's greatest educators.

It is decorated with many works of art. The result of the fostering of artistic ideas can be readily seen in display of this room, which was worth going to see.

At the Sixth Ward school the primary children gave a very entertaining performance and a large crowd of parents and friends were there to cheer them on in their splendid efforts.

The directors of the Independent Tobacco Warehouse Co. held a business meeting Friday morning. Among those present were Mr. Crawford of Louisville; Mr. M. L. Kirkpatrick, of Cincinnati; Mr. W. H. Robb, Mr. E. L. Manchester and Mr. W. T. Steele, of this city.

Messes, Ward Nash and Samuel Nutt were business visitors in Lewis county Thursday and Friday.

Mr. Charles E. Curran went down to Cincinnati Friday on business and will return tonight.

Promptly at 8 o'clock, Prof. G. C. Mance opened the contest with appropriate words and the fight was on.

East number was appreciated by the audience, which was held in the suspense of doubt of the outcome of the contest, until the chairman of judges, Hon. Stanley F. Reed, announced the winner, the Athenaeum. The result that followed shook the building from cellar to roof. The program was as follows:

The untiring effort of Miss Nellie Sutherland, Maysville High School's noble teacher, made the program the great success it was.
